Educational Background and Business Experience

Russell Campbell was born in 1963. He graduated from James Madison University with a BBA in 1985. In the years to follow, he obtained his securities licenses, his CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) and Certified Investment Management Analyst® (CIMA®) designations. These designations are explained in further detail below:

- CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) – Issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards (202-379-2200, www.cfp.net). The CFP® designation is conveyed to financial professionals who have met rigorous professional standards and have agreed to the principles of integrity, objectivity, competence, fairness, confidentiality, professionalism and diligence when dealing with clients. Successful candidates must typically hold a Bachelor’s degree, complete required course of study, hold relevant work experience, pass a background check, pass an extensive examination and comply with a code of ethics. Continuing Education Requirements - 30 hours every two years.
- Certified Investment Management Analyst® (CIMA®) – The CIMA® certification is issued by the Investments and Wealth Institute (303-770-3377, www.investmentsandwealth.org). Professionals earning the CIMA® certification learn how to integrate a complex body of investment knowledge and ethically contribute to prudent investment decisions by providing objective advice and guidance to individual and institutional investors. Successful candidates complete a required course of study, pass a second background check, hold relevant work experience and pass a proctored exam. Continuing Education Requirements – 40 hours every two years; two of which must be on ethics and one on taxes/regulations.

Born in Virginia, Russell moved to Pennsylvania in 1997 to continue his financial services career as a Relationship Manager for Vanguard. After 17 years, Russell founded RJC Capital, LLC in 2013, a financial consulting firm. In 2019, Russell merged his business with a Financial Advisory firm, Ambassador Advisors, Inc., staying on as Financial Advisor. In 2021, Russell relocated to Florida to join ProVise Management Group, LLC (“ProVise”) as a Senior Financial Planner.
