Educational Background and Business Experience

Eric Ebbert was born in 1961. He graduated from Hamilton College with a BA in Economics in 1983. In 1987, Eric attained his MBA from the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University. In the years to follow, he obtained his securities and insurance licenses, as well as his CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) designation. This designation is explained in further detail below:

- CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) –Issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards (202-379-2200, www.cfp.net). The CFP® designation is conveyed to financial professionals who have met rigorous professional standards and have agreed to the principles of integrity, objectivity, competence, fairness, confidentiality, professionalism and diligence when dealing with clients. Successful candidates must typically hold a Bachelor’s degree, complete required course of study, hold relevant work experience, pass a background check, pass an extensive examination and comply with a code of ethics. Continuing Education Requirements - 30 hours every two years.

Prior to entering the financial advisory field, Eric worked for IBM in San Francisco and Tampa, and was a Sports Editor for a Connecticut newspaper.

In 2000, Eric joined ProVise Management Group, LLC (“ProVise”) after five years of managing the financial assets of a Tampa entrepreneur and his family. On January 1, 2022, Eric became the Chief Executive Officer after formerly holding the office of President. He is an Investment Advisory Representative and Insurance Agent of ProVise.

At the time ProVise was acquired by National Financial Partners (“NFP”) in 2002, Eric and his Partners established ProVise Management Company, Inc. (“PMC”) which has an exclusive, perpetual contract to manage ProVise. He is also President of PMC.

Prior to joining NFP Advisor Services, LLC (“NFPAS”), a Broker-Dealer and member of FINRA/SIPC, as a Registered Representative and Investment Advisor Representative, in 2002, Eric was registered with InterSecurities, Inc. On December 7, 2015, he voluntarily terminated his registrations with NFPAS.
